

WORKSHOP CALL OUT

LGBTQ+ Folks

LIVING IN MANCHESTER

WHAT:

A workshop for LGBTQ+ 'elders' and early career artists to discuss interpersonal urban connections + 'self-making', and create a collaborative artwork. Facilitated by queer theorist Dr. Emma Spruce and dyke artist Madeleine Vietmeier

WHY:

We are interested in how arts-based methods can provide insight into complex socio-political realities. We believe this workshop can generate multi-dimensional knowledge that more effectively communicates lived experience in a non-normative format!

We are seeking six LGBTQ+ 'elders' (60+ years) living in Manchester for at least one year!
